They suddenly disappeared after the introduction of Star Power Sticks.No official Transformation Pens items were ever released, although there are plenty of fanmade replicas, while Luna gave Rei and Makoto their transformation feathers, and Artemis was the one who gave Minako his pen; all the pens look identical except for Minako's, as his was a different style more similar to a pencil with a hat and star on top. In the anime, all Inner Sailor Senshi had identical transformation pens (except for color and sign), but in the manga and Crystal, Minako's Transformation Pen came from his Sailor V times. It allows everyone to transform into its standard and regular form. In the first season, Luna was the one who gave Ami, Rei, and Makoto their mystical transformation pens, while Artemis gave Minako his (though never shown on screen). They were later replaced by the four mystics, much stronger Star Power Sticks in the fifteenth episode. Just as in the manga, the Senshi could channel their powers through their pens, though in doing so they exhausted them. They were destroyed when Sailor Senshi combined their full powers as one in a last-ditch effort to try to eliminate Queen Metalia. The term "transformation element" can also be used to refer to any other transformation element of pen type. Rei and Mako received theirs from Luna in the midst of the battle, and Minako got his at the beginning of the code name: Manga Sailor V. Crystal In Moon Crystal, Ami won his mystical pen playing Sailor V and Usagi got his pen from The game machine. However, you don't know if the other transformation pens had magical writing powers like the Mineako pen. To undergo the transformation, the phrase mercury / Mars / Jupiter / power of Venus, make up to turn into Sailor Mercury, Sailor Mars, Sailor Jupiter and Sailor Venus (respectively). During the final battle against Queen Metallia, the Senshi channeled all their energy through their pens to revive Sailor Moon and Tuxedo Mask, who had been absorbed by Metallia. The Sailor Senshi sacrificed their pens to awaken Sailor Moon, which at the age of time was within Metallia. These pens were finally replaced by much stronger and powerful Star Power Stick. The stick.
